

Paul S. C. Hsu, Ph.D.
Independent Director and Financial Expert of UMC
(NYSE: UMC, TSE: 2303)

Vita

Education

- Ph.D., Business Administration, The University of Michigan (1974)
- M.B.A. with Distinction, The University of Michigan (1964)
- LL. M. National Chengchi University (1959)
- B.A. Economics, National Taiwan University (1956)

Professional Experiences and Industrial Boards

- Chairman, Taiwan Assessment and Evaluation Association (2003-)
- Chairman, Chinese Management Association, Taipei, Taiwan, Republic of China (1997-2004)
- Chairman of the Board, Bank of Kaohsiung, Kaohsiung, Taiwan, Republic of China (1995-1998)
- Director of the Board, China Airlines (1994-1996)
- Director of the Board, United Credit Information Center (1992-1996)
- Director of the Board, Taiwan Stock Exchange (1992-1995)
- Director of the Board, China Productivity Center (1991-1997)
- Director of the Board, China Petroleum Corporation (1990-1992), (2000-2002)
- Director of the Board, China Aviation Industry Development Foundation (1988-1997)
- Director of the Board, World Economic Research Foundation (1987-)

Contributions

- Has founded, and currently served as the chief editor of Industry Management Review, a HBR-style publication with the stated mission of bridging the gap between the academia and industries in Taiwan. (parenthetically he has previously served as the chief editor of the most prestigious Management Journal, a AMJ-type journal in Taiwan.)
- Has written more than 120 book reviews on works by authors including Drucker, Porter, Kotler, Useem, Kotter Nohria, Bennis, etc., a collection of them have resulted in the publication of three books in 2001, 2004 and 2006, consecutively.

Honors and Awards

- Outstanding Achievement Award, Phi Tau Phi Scholastic Honor Society, 2009
- Distinguished Contribution Award, National Quality Award, 2009
- One of the five recipients of the Confucius Award in Business Education conferred for the first time by the China's Confucius Foundation on September 28(the Confucius's birthday) 2006 in China.
- Appointed as the University Professor by Yuan Ze University, starting from 20 Oct. 2006, for contribution to the business education in Taiwan.
- Member of the Phi Tau Phi Scholastic Honor Society at National Taiwan University, 1988
- Member of the Alpha of Michigan Chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma, 1965